Haiku Poems

*Created During Susanna Lee's Workshop on 11/14/2015:
(each poem includes all three words: tables, Pagoda, writers)*

Creative writers
Gather at the Pagoda
All worries tabled.

– Ginny Rathman

Life happens today too
Who can find it when it flies?
Even the shadows lost.

– Doug Franks

“Heart and Soul”
I am so Blessed Yes!
Grateful beyond all Belief
Faith and soul collage

– L T James

Family, friends both old and new visit
Candles lit glowing at dusk
We pray then eat a humble meal

– Mary Ann Albert

A wife and four boys
Always active to support
I will change nothing

– Michael Donlan

Haiku Poems

Time is a precious gift
It is finite, do not abuse
It. Time waits for no one and Does not regret, but you will
If you waste it.

– Chris Harper

“At the Pagoda”
View, Mountains and town
Sunshine fills the valley full Whoosh! The wind does blow

– CJ Rhoads

“Haiku Challenge”
Around the tables
On top of the whole wide world
Pagoda Writers

– CJ Rhoads

“Friends & Family”
Webs of family
Spread out, spinning and spanning Gratitude overwhelms me

– CJ Rhoads

Inescapable
Lilacs make their presence known
Olfact'ry Stampede

– Donna T. Luhrs*

* I'm not sure if this is the correct spelling of her last name

Haiku Poems

Around white tables
Pagoda Writers become Haiku composers

– Christine Ross

Bountiful Harvest
Sharing food and gratitude
Families gather

– Christine Ross

a single red leaf
stuck in ice on my windshield
alone in my grief

– Susanna Lee

King Arthur's table
inspired knights to do good Pagoda writers soar

– Susanna Lee

friends at tables
the Pagoda's views inspire
writers to great heights

– Susanna Lee
